and all are members of the body...”.

This Scripture exemplifies the concept of Per Capita as a way that all parts of the church are parts of one body. In addition, a remember of the work of Per Capita at the beginning of the year offers good opportunities for conversation and planning regarding meeting requests for Per Capita contributions to General Assembly, synod and presbytery.

For a variety of tools and resources to observe this new Special Emphasis Sunday,

Resources for Special Emphasis Sunday

The Presbyterian Mission Agency is offering two webinars in January for any PC(USA) leader with educational debt Webinars will be focused on the changes in Public Service Loan Assistance

(<https://studentaid.gov/manage-loans/forgiveness-cancellation/public-service>) and how these changes could affect PC(USA) leaders. Because of a change to religious worker exclusion rules made in July 2021

(<https://studentaid.gov/manage-loans/forgiveness-cancellation/public-service>) and the recently announced “Limited Opportunity Waiver,”

(<https://studentaid.gov/announcements-events/pslf-limited-waiver>)

PC(USA) leaders who may not have previously qualified for qualified for Public Service Loan Forgiveness could have their loans forgiven much sooner than expected.

Any PC(USA) is welcome to join either webinar. Student Loan experts from PeopleJoy will present the material and will be available to answer general questions.

Live simultaneous interpretation will be provided in Spanish and Korean.

Donations to help Afghan Refugees

The International Institute of Southwest Missouri is collecting items to help Afghan refugees who will settle in our area. Here are new instructions if your group wants to help:

Because we are accepting different donations at different locations, please fill out the Donation Form and await an email from me with a time to donate the items. Additionally, I have attached a list of donations that we accept. We do not have the capacity to accept all items. If you are uncertain about an item, please contact me. Below are the locations and associated items of each storage unit. Please do not bring items by the office without contacting me first as this can interfere with other staff members’ work.
