Covenant/Contract with Stated Supply Pastor

1. The covenant/contract between the Session of Crane Presbyterian Church of Crane, Missouri and Ms. Chelsea May LaRue is for the purpose of providing stated supply services. The relationships shall continue from January 1, 2021 until December 31, 2021.
2. It is understood that the Stated Supply is accountable to the Session and the Presbytery through the Committee on Ministry.
3. It is agreed that this contract may be terminated upon 30 days written notice by either the Stated Supply or by the Session.

The Stated Supply will fulfill the following responsibilities:

- Lead worship and preach on Sundays.
- Prepare the bulletin/screen information (and material for lay liturgist when circumstances allow)
- Provide sermon to clerk of session for distribution by email and snail mail
- Provide pastoral care for the congregation
- Assist the committees of the church as needed
- Provide contacts with nursing home residents, and assist with homebound visits; offer prayers and pastoral support as elders lead in communion to the homebound
- Assist the session to train newly elected officers as needed
- Participate in the life of the presbytery on behalf of Crane Presbyterian
- Observe confidentiality in all relationships

The compensation shall be $250 weekly, plus mileage reimbursement at the IRS rate. Four weeks of vacation and 2 weeks of continuing education annually are included. Stated Supply will also be reimbursed for up to $1,500 in continuing education expenses annually.
