

APPLICATION FOR GRANT FROM CREATIVE MINISTRIES JOHN CALVIN PRESBYTERY
Relevant information---please read before completing application:

The amount available for 2018 Creative Ministry Grants will likely be over $7,000. Consideration will be given that the available money may be shared through the three geographical regions of the John Calvin Presbytery. No grant application should exceed the total amount available.

This will be a one year grant from Creative Ministries and the grant application should represent a creative, non-budgeted mission proposal from your church.

The Creative Ministries grant is open to all churches—small and large - and we encourage congregations to work in partnership with other congregations in their vicinity.

The application should be accompanied by a copy of the minutes of the session where the mission project was approved by the Session and signed by the clerk.

A sample application is on the Presbytery website.

Should you have further questions then please call the Pastoral Presbyter at 620-674-1844.

Time-line: Application should be received in the Presbytery office by June 15, 2018 and the grants will be made in August.

Within two months of the completion of the mission program, a detailed report shall be submitted detailing the numbers of individuals involved (church congregation(s) and community), total monies spent, and a subjective evaluation of the mission project.
