(Part of this program is retreats for pastors' families – we will be inviting your family to attend.)

Are you able to make a three-year commitment to this endeavor?

Do you authorize OPSF to use photos/videos?

Is there anything that might prevent you from participation for three years, e.g., seeking a new call, or health concerns?

What gives you satisfaction in your ministry? Where do you experience joy?

What challenges are you facing in your ministry? Declining worship attendance? Lack of enthusiasm on the session? Complacency among the members? Please share two to three challenges or struggles that you are seeking to address in your church and ministry.

If you are experiencing a sense of isolation, what do you see as the causes of that isolation? A different culture than you are familiar with? Geographic isolation? Different educational background than your community? Please share two or three reasons that might be contributing to a sense of isolation.

What is your understanding of coaching and/or mentoring? How do you think that you might benefit from working with a coaching mentor?

What else would you like to share about yourself and/or your ministry?
